

Ritual Feminine

CALLING THE CIRCLE

Sacred rites and practices for remembering feminine medicine, self-healing and insight

Sunday 6 May

1PM - 4PM

A 3 hour journey of Sacred Rites and practices for remembering feminine medicine for self healing and insight.

with Rachel Hanrahan and Rebecca Van Horssen.

Enter the space of healer as dreamer and her pathway of power and insight. Here we cultivate the innate wisdom and magic of the authentic self. Explore rites and rituals from the feminine voice of your medicine woman within. Be guided from the mythos of Inanna of meeting the dark shadow of one self through the deep waters of the unconscious, the power of feminine mystery and magic. Innana is a Goddess of Babylonian times whose own shamanic journey of release, renewal and re-empowerment is used to explain the seasons representing the descent into Winter.

This lovingly crafted workshop includes: opening and closing circles, Sacred Female Yoga, Shamanic drum journey and ritual herbal medicine crafting. For Autumn we create smudge sticks as the ritual herbal medicine crafting.
